Analysis of Assistance

Cases

- Nonsupport - recent arrivals are likely subjects

Leaders must ensure unaccompanied soldiers are thoroughly familiar with family support obligations IAW AR 608-99 upon arrival/in-processing in the unit.

- Mishandling of an individuals Personal Data (SSN) leads to violations of the Privacy Act

Always safe guard personal information of individuals. Limit sending personal data over E-mail to "wide spread" distribution addresses. Always mark rosters that contain personal information appropriately.

- A complainant's "Command Management" issue is usually resolved at company level with a clarification of policy

Review policy letters routinely. Ensure new personnel understand command policies. Ensure policy letters are easily accessible to members of the organization.

Analysis of Assistance

Cases

- On-line support channels have decreased Personnel Mgmt and Finance complaints.
Leaders should ensure service members have access to computers to make changes to their personnel and finance issues.
- Unit Level Leaders should be consulting their higher chain of command, legal advisor, Equal Opportunity Advisor, or Inspector General prior to acting on personnel actions that have legal implications.
- Greater emphasis on reception, in-processing, and initial counseling of incoming personnel can reduce personnel issues and keep mission focus.

FY 02

Findings:

- Commanders and staff lack a general understanding of the OIP.
- Initial Command Inspections are not executed within regulatory guidelines (90 days for active component)
- Commanders do not always participate in command inspections.
- Significant Observation: Inspecting Commanders do not provide the inspected commander an assessment of strengths and weakness upon completion nor do they use subsequent command inspection results to measure progress and reinforce goals and standards established during the ICI.

19TH Theater Support Command

Inspector General

DAIG Inspection of the OIP

Findings:

- Follow up inspection plans to correct deficiencies are frequently not developed, monitored, or conducted.
- Existing inspection programs are tailored and do not complement subordinate commanders' needs
- Leaders and staff are trained to plan and conduct inspections in accordance with Army policy.
- Inspectors General are not used as OIP advisors in accordance with AR 1-201.
- The Army Staff does not conduct an annual review of inspections for which they are the proponent.
- The effectiveness of the OIP is limited due to inconsistent guidance delineating responsibilities for development, coordination, and execution of the program.
- DAIG is currently revising AR 1-201, Army Inspection Policy. Not updated since 1993.

Final Inspection Notes

The 19th TSC Inspector General is available and best qualified to train staff & unit inspectors in inspection techniques and inspection planning. For training staff, unit, and IG inspectors, the IG uses "The Inspections Guide," published by the Department of Army Inspector General Agency. This guide is available to all inspectors -- including non-IGs. Staff principals and unit commanders should arrange for training directly with the 19th TSC IG.
